

Crl.O.P.No.5265 of 2016R.MALA,J.

The petitioners, who are arrayed as accused, apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of I.P.C., in Crime No.535 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners are alleged to have assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and caused injuries.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and they have been falsely implicated in this case and hence, he prays for enlargement on anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) would submit that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and the investigation is considerably over and however, he prays for dismissal of this application.

5. Considering the rival submissions made by both sides and also considering the fact that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and the investigation is considerably over and even though the
