

Crl.O.P.No.5867 of 2016K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.

The petitioners apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 379 of IPC r/w. Section 21(1)(iv) of Mines and Minerals Act in Crime No.140 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner is the owner of lorry and he along with second petitioner said to have transported three units of sand in the lorry illegally.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, he would submit that the petitioners, to show their bona fide, volunteered and agreed to pay a sum of Rs.10,000/- each [Rupees Ten thousands only] towards donation.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners have no previous case and that the entire sand and lorry were seized.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the entire sand and lorry were seized, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
