

Crl.O.P.No.6116 of 2016
K.KALYANASUNDARAM,J.

The petitioners, who are arrayed as accused, apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 307 IPC, in Crime No.94 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injury.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured has been discharged from hospital and the petitioners have involved in one previous case of similar in nature.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
