

CRL. OP. No.7341 OF 2016K.KALYANASUNDARAM.J.

The petitioner, who is arrayed as an accused, apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 379 IPC read with Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals Act, in Crime No.161 of 2016 and hence, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the owner of the lorry. When the respondent police have intercepted the petitioner's vehicle, they found that the petitioner has been transporting one unit of sand without any valid permit.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is the owner of the lorry; he is innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner, to prove his bonafide, agreed to donate a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only).

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner has no previous case and that the entire sand and vehicle were seized.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and further considering the fact that the entire sand and vehicle were seized, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
