

Crl.O.P.No.8693 of 2016

K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.169 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to boundary dispute, the petitioner and his family members attacked the defacto complainant with hands and caused simple injury.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
