The petitioner has come up with this writ petition under the guise of Public Interest Litigation seeking a direction as follows:

2. We have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents and perused the records carefully.

3. In our considered view, the prayer sought for by the petitioner is innocuous, which does not even mention what is the temple and what are the rooms available and which are hired. There is no specific mention about the temple. Hence, there is no merit in this writ petition and the same is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is also dismissed.
