3. Pending the writ petition, this Court has passed an interim order on 13.04.2015 permitting the petitioner to appear 3rd year examination and the petitioner has also written the examination. Subsequently, he sought for transfer to some other College, namely, SBM Engineering College, Dindigul, which was also permitted and the petitioner also completed the course, insofar as the result of the 3rd year examination written by the petitioner has not published by the first respondent.

4. On instructions, the learned counsel appearing for the first respondent submitted that the petitioner completed the course, since the W.P. is pending and no final order was passed in the writ petition the result of the examination is withheld.

5. Taken into consideration of the fact that the petitioner was permitted to write the third year examination and now, he has also completed the course, the first respondent is directed to publish the result in respect of the 3rd year examination.

6. With the above observation, the writ petition is closed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are also closed.
