PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, to call for the entire records in detention order passed in Cr.MP.No.13 of 2015, dated 17.10.2015, on the file of the second respondent herein and set aside the same as illegal and direct the respondents to produce the petitioner namely Kamaraj, S/o. Mahamuni, male, aged about 26 years, who is detained in Central Prison, Trichirappalli, before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Petitioner : Mr. K.A.S. Prabhu
For Respondents : Mr. A. Ramar,
Additional Public Prosecutor.

O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by K.K. SASIDHARAN, J.]

This Habeas Corpus Petition is filed by the detenu - Kamaraj, who is under detention, pursuant to the order passed by the second respondent dated 17.10.2015 in Cr.MP.No.13 of 2015, under Section 2(ggg) of the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber Law Offenders, Drug-offenders, Forest-offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Sexual Offenders, Slum-Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982, (Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982), read with the order issued by the Government in G.O.(D).No.155, Home Prohibition and Excise (XVI) Department, dated 18.07.2015, under Sub-Section (2) of Section 3 of the said Act, branding him as "Sexual Offender".

2. We have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

5. The Detention Order in question has been passed on 17.10.2015. The petitioner made representations dated 27.10.2015 and 25.01.2016. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 04.11.2015 and 03.02.2016. The remarks were duly received on 11.11.2015 and 10.03.2016. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the representations on 18.11.2015 and 28.03.2016.

6. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of four days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority with regard to the first representation and 23 days with regard to the second representation.

7. In Rekha Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, [2011 (5) SCC 244], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

8. In Sumaiya Vs. The Secretary to Government, [2007 (2) MWN (Cr.) 145], a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

9. In Tara Chand Vs. State of Rajasthan and others, [1980 (2) SCC 321], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

10. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of four days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority with regard to the first representation and also 23 days with regard to the second representation and therefore, the impugned detention order is liable to be quashed.

11. In the result, the impugned Detention Order, passed by the second respondent, in his proceedings in Cr.MP.No.13 of 2015, dated 17.10.2015 is quashed. The detenu, namely, Kamaraj, S/o.Mahamuni, male, aged about 26 years, is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if he is not required for detention in connection with any other case.

12. In the upshot, we allow the Habeas Corpus Petition.
