PRAYER: Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for the issue of a Writ of Habeas Corpus to call for the entire records, connected with the detention order of the respondent No.2 in M.H.S.Confdl No.11/2016 dated 08.02.2016 and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Ramesh @ Paraikattan, Son of Thangapandi, aged about 24 years, now detained in Palayamkottai Central Prison, before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.Alagumani

For Respondents : Mr.C.Ramesh
Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by B.GOKULDAS, J]

The petitioner Ramesh @ Paraikattan, son of Thangapandi, aged about 24 years, has been detained as "Goonda", under Section 2(f) of the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug-offenders, Forest-offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Slum-grabbers and Video Pirates

Act, 1982, (Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982), as per the order of the second respondent, dated 08.02.2016. Challenging the same, he has come up with this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. Though the order of detention is assailed on several grounds, the learned counsel for the petitioner relies on the contention that the subjective satisfaction expressed by the detaining authority regarding the imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail in the ground case can be even termed ipse dixit, not based by cogent materials. In elaboration of the said contention, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that when no bail application is pending in respect of the ground case, the detaining authority referred to another case as similar case particulars. The case of a co-accused in the same case alone can be cited as a bail order in a similar case. Since the detaining authority has chosen to refer to some other order passed in some other case, when no bail application was moved on behalf of the detenu, the comparison was improper and the same will make the subjective satisfaction of the detaining authority regarding the real possibility of the detenu coming out on bail ipse dixit not supported by cogent materials.

3. The submissions made by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor in reply to the above said contention raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner are also heard.

4. In paragraph No.6 of the grounds of detention, the detaining authority stated that there is a real possibility of his coming out on bail by filing bail application, since bail has been granted in similar cases. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioner, when no bail application is pending in the case in which the subjective satisfaction of the real possibility of the detenu coming out on bail is to be expressed, then the comparable order shall be an order passed in respect of a co-accused and not an order passed in any other case. The said dictum has been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Huidrom Konungjao Singh vs. State of Manipur and others, reported in (2012) 3 MLJ (Cr1) 794 (SC). The said citation is squarely applicable to the present case. Hence, we do have no hesitation in coming to the conclusion that the comparison made for expression of subjective satisfaction is not proper and the expression of subjective satisfaction regarding the imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail in the ground case is only ipse dixit not supported by cogent materials. On that ground alone, the order of detention is liable to be set aside.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and this Court sets aside the order of detention dated 08.02.2016, made in M.N.S. Confdl.No.11/2016, by the second respondent / the District Collector and District Magistrate, Tirunelveli District,

Tirunelveli and directs the release of the detenu by name Ramesh @ Paraikattan, Son of Thangapandi, aged about 24 years forthwith, if his custody/detention is not authorised in specific cases or by any other order of detention.
