... Petitioner

Vs.

R.Muthuraj

... Respondent

Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition is filed under Section 24 of Civil Procedure Code to withdraw the H.M.O.P.No.22 of 2016 pending on the file of Sub Court, Thoothukudi and to transfer the same to the file of Principal Sub Court, Nagercoil.

For Petitioner : Mr.M.P.Senthil

For Respondent : Mr.S.M.Mohan Gandhi

ORDER

The marriage between the petitioner and respondent has been solemnized on 06.04.2014 as per the Hindu rites and customs at Thoothukudi. Due to strained relationship between the parties, the petitioner was forced to leave the matrimonial home and now she is living along with her parents at Nagercoil. Out of the wedlock, a male child was born to her on 06.02.2015 and now the child is aged 1½ years. The contention of the petitioner is that she filed CrI.M.P.No.1459 of 2016 before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Nagercoil under the Domestic Violence Act and the same is pending. The respondent has filed a petition for divorce in H.M.O.P.No.22 of 2016 before the Subordinate Court at Thoothukudi. Therefore, the petitioner is unable spent time and travel to defend the case effectively at Thoothukudi. This apart she is having a child aged 1½ years and she is not in a position to bring the child with her to Tuticorin often to defend the case. Further, the Cr.M.P.No.1459 of 2016 is also pending before the Court at Nagercoil.

2.The learned counsel for the respondent objected the petition by stating that it is the petitioner who left the matrimonial home on her own instance and therefore, she is at fault and the petition is to be dismissed.

3. Considering the arguments and the counter arguments of the respective counsels, this Court is of the opinion that the principles regarding transfer petitions, more specifically in the matters of matrimonial cases in respect of women, are well settled through the decisions of the High Court of Madras, in the following cases:-

(i) The Hon'ble Division Bench of the High Court of Madras in W.A.No.1181 of 2009, dated 09.07.2010 has held as follows:-

'21. The domicile or citizenship of the opposite party is immaterial in a case like this. In case the marriage was solemnized under Hindu Law marital relationship is governed by the provisions of the Hindu Marriage Act. Therefore, Section 19 has to be given a purposeful interpretation. It is the residence of the wife, which determines the question of jurisdiction, in case the proceeding was initiated at the instance of the wife.

22. While considering a provision like Section 19 (iii-a) of the Hindu Marriage Act, the objects and reasons which prompted the parliament to incorporate such a provision has also to be taken note of. Sub Clause (iii-a) was inserted in Section 19 with a specific purpose. Experience is the best teacher. The Government found the difficulties faced by women in the matter of initiation of matrimonial proceedings. The report submitted by the Law Commission as well as National Commission for Women, underlying the need for such amendment so as to enable the women to approach the nearest jurisdictional court to redress their matrimonial grievances, were also taken note of by the Government. Therefore such a beneficial provision meant for the women of our Country should be given a meaningful interpretation by Courts.'

(ii) In yet another case in TR.CMP.Nos.138 and 139 of 2006, dated 30.08.2006, the High Court of Madras has considered the following judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court:-

'16. In AIR 2000 SC 3512 (1) (Mona Aresh Goel vs. Aresh Satya Goel), when the wife pleaded that she was unable to bear the traveling expenses and even to travel alone and stay at Bombay, the Supreme Court ordered transfer of proceedings.

In 2000 (10) SCC 304, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that where the petitioner's wife has pleaded lack of money, the same has to be considered.

In 2000 (9) SCC 355, the wife has filed a petition to transfer the proceedings initiated by the husband for Bombay. The place of residence of the wife was at Jaipur, Rajasthan. In that case, the petitioner is having a small child and that she pleaded difficulty in going all the way from Jaipur to Bombay to contest the proceedings from time to time. Considering the distance and the difficulties faced by the wife, the Supreme Court has allowed the transfer petition.

In a decision reported in 2005 (12) SCC 395, the wife has sought for transfer of matrimonial proceedings and a divorce petition has been filed by the respondent's husband at Baikunthpur to be transferred to Allahabad, where the petitioner's wife was residing, on the ground that it would be difficult for her to undertake such long distance journey, particularly in circumstances, in which she finds that the proceedings under Section 125 Cr.P.C. was already pending before the Family Court, Allahabad. Considering the difficulties faced by the wife and also the long distance journey, the Honourable Supreme Court was pleased to order transfer of the proceedings to Allahabad.

(iii) In a decision made in TR.CMP(MD)No.108 of 2010, dated 03.03.2011, the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court, has observed as below:-

'18. It is true that section 19 of the Hindu Marriage Act, has been amended by insertion of proviso of (iii)(a) to section 19. Of Course, this amended section 19(iii)(a) gives special preference to the wife to file a petition or defending the case of the husband before the Court within whose jurisdiction she resides. The intention of the legislator is to safe-guard the interest and rights of the women, who are being subjected to harassment and cruelty. But this special preference conferred under section 19(iii)(a) of the Hindu Marriage Act shall not be used to wreck vengeance on the husband. There must be a justifiable cause to select the jurisdiction of the Court where she resides.'

4. In view of the above pronouncements, the case of the petitioner deserves to be considered and accordingly, this Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition is allowed and H.M.O.P.No.22 of 2016 on the file of the Subordinate Judge, Thoothukudi is ordered to be transferred to the Principal Subordinate Judge, Nagercoil forthwith. No costs. Consequently, C.M.P(MD)No.3263 of 2016 is closed.
