

BEFORE THE MADURAI BENCH OF MADRAS HIGH COURT

DATED : 25.10.2016

CORAM :

THE HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE S.M.SUBRAMANIAM

TR.CMP(MD)No.347 of 2016

and

C.M.P(MD)No.6557 of 2016

K.Gajapriya

... Petitioner/Respondent

vs.

P.Murugananth

... Respondent/Petitioner.

Prayer: Petition filed under Section 24 of the Civil Procedure Code, to withdraw and transfer the HMOP.No.340 of 2016 on the file of the Sub Court, Tambaram, to the Family Court, Trichy.

For Petitioner : Mr.C.K.M.Appaji

For Respondent : Mr.R.Devarajan for MS.D.Geetha

ORDER

The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent was solemnized on 08.03.2015 as per the Hindu rites and customs. The petitioner and the respondent commenced the matrimonial home at Chennai and after two months, the respondent started harassing the petitioner and thrown out the petitioner from the matrimonial home on 19.05.2015 itself. Sincere efforts taken by the elders of the petitioner's family went in vain and the respondent refused to resume to the matrimonial home. In spite of the repeated efforts of the petitioner for re-union, the respondent was reluctant in accepting re-union. Finally, the respondent filed HMOP.No.340 of 2016 before the Sub Court, Tambaram, for divorce. The contention of the petitioner is that she is residing at Trichy with her aged parents who are suffering from various ailments. Further, she has to travel about 330 kms for each and every hearings at Sub Court, Tambaram and it will be very difficult for her. The respondent has filed the divorce petition in order to harass the petitioner. Further, he is an influential person and possibility of threat is also there.

2.The contention of the respondent is that the petitioner used to pick up frequent quarrels with him and left the matrimonial home at her own volition and not at the instance of the respondent. The other contentions raised by the petitioner are frivolous and deserve no consideration.

3. The principles with regard to transfer petitions, more specifically, in the matters of matrimonial cases, are in favour of women and the decisions of the High Court of Madras, in the following cases interpreting Section 19(iii)(a) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, also confirm that position:-

(i) The Hon'ble Division Bench of the High Court of Madras in W.A.No.1181 of 2009, dated 09.07.2010 has held as follows:-

'21. The domicile or citizenship of the opposite party is immaterial in a case like this. In case the marriage was solemnized under Hindu Law marital relationship is governed by the provisions of the Hindu Marriage Act. Therefore, Section 19 has to be given a purposeful interpretation. It is the residence of the wife, which determines the question of jurisdiction, in case the proceeding was initiated at the instance of the wife.

22. While considering a provision like Section 19 (iii-a) of the Hindu Marriage Act, the objects and reasons which prompted the parliament to incorporate such a provision has also to be taken note of. Sub Clause (iii-a) was inserted in Section 19 with a specific purpose. Experience is the best teacher. The Government found the difficulties faced by women in the matter of initiation of matrimonial proceedings. The report submitted by the Law Commission as well as National Commission for Women, underlying the need for such amendment so as to enable the women to approach the nearest jurisdictional court to redress their matrimonial grievances, were also taken note of by the Government. Therefore such a beneficial provision meant for the women of our Country should be given a meaningful interpretation by Courts.'

(ii) In yet another case in TR.CMP.Nos.138 and 139 of 2006, dated 30.08.2006, the High Court of Madras has considered the following judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court:-

'16. In AIR 2000 SC 3512 (1) (Mona Aresh Goel vs. Aresh Satya Goel), when the wife pleaded that she was unable to bear the traveling expenses and even to travel alone and stay at Bombay, the Supreme Court ordered transfer of proceedings.

In 2000 (10) SCC 304, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that where the petitioner's wife has pleaded lack of money, the same has to be considered.

In 2000 (9) SCC 355, the wife has filed a petition to transfer the proceedings initiated by the husband for divorce, at Bombay. The place of residence of the wife was at Jaipur, Rajasthan. In that case, the petitioner is having a small child and that she pleaded difficulty in going all the way from Jaipur to Bombay to contest the proceedings from time to time. Considering the distance and the difficulties faced by the wife, the Supreme Court has allowed the transfer petition.

In a decision reported in 2005 (12) SCC 395, the wife has sought for transfer of matrimonial proceedings and a divorce petition has been filed by the respondent's husband at Baikunthpur to be transferred to Allahabad, where the petitioner's wife was residing, on the ground that it would be difficult for her to undertake such long distance journey, particularly in circumstances, in which she finds that the proceedings under Section 125 Cr.P.C. was already pending before the Family Court, Allahabad. Considering the difficulties faced by the wife and also the long distance journey, the Honourable Supreme Court was pleased to order transfer of the proceedings to Allahabad.

4.Considering the contentions and the rival contentions of the respective parties and in view of the above pronouncements, this Court is of the view that the case of the petitioner deserves to be considered. Accordingly, this Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition is allowed and HMOP.No.340 of 2016 on the file of the Sub Court, Tambaram, is ordered to be transferred to the Family Court, Trichy, forthwith. No costs. Consequently, C.M.P(MD)No.6557 of 2016 is closed.
