... Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying for the issuance of a Writ of Mandamus, directing the respondents to pay all the terminal benefits amount payable to the petitioner's wife including Leave Salary, Service-Surrender Leave Salary together with 18% interest from the date of her retirement to till the date of payment and also 18% interest for the belated payment of Commuted Value of Pension, Gratuity and all other attendant benefits to the petitioner within the stipulated period.

For Petitioner : Mr.A.Rahul

For Respondents : Mr.A.P.Muthupandian

ORDER

The petitioner's wife was employed as Senior Assistant in the respondent transport corporation and she retired from service on 31.05.2012. Her husband has filed this writ petition seeking for a direction to the respondents to pay the retirement benefits of her deceased wife.

2.When the matter is taken up for hearing, Mr.A.P.Muthupandian, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that the issue is covered by a judgment of a Division Bench of this Court in W.A(MD).Nos.383 to 457 of 2015 dated 12.06.2015. He has further submitted that the respondents would consider the request of the petitioner in the light of the judgment passed by the Honourable Division Bench.

3. For ready reference, the judgment passed by the Hon'ble Division Bench in W.A.(MD).Nos.383 to 457 of 2015 dated 12.06.2015 is extracted hereunder:

"The learned Additional Advocate General submits that he has obtained written instructions vide letter No.7945/E/2015-2 dated 11.06.2015 that the terminal benefits of the appellants would be settled through twelve equal monthly installments, carrying interest of 6% p.a.

2. The said statement is thus taken on record and the respondents will be bound by the same, we have to keep in mind the judicial pronouncement of the Honourable Supreme Court in D.D.TEWARI (D) THR. LRS. Vs. UTTAR HARYANA BIJLI VITRAN NIGAM LTD & ORS {2014 (9) SCALE - 78}, wherein it is held that in case of any delay in making the payment of the installments, the interest payable would become 18% p.a., for the delayed period apart from any other remedy which may be available to the appellants for non-compliance of undertaking given to this Court.

3. The installments to be paid from July 2015 and each installment should be paid on or before 7th of each month"

4. Following the judgment of the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court referred to above, the respondents are directed to pay the retirement benefits due and payable to the petitioner's wife in 12 equal monthly installments commencing from 10th August, 2016. Further, if there are settlements or awards, the Corporation is obliged to take the same into account while arriving at the figure. It is needless to mention that the entire arrears shall carry interest at the rate of 6% per annum. In case of delay in making installments, the interest payable could be 18% for the delayed period.

5. The aforesaid direction to settle the terminal benefits would not preclude the workman to question the computation of any of the terminal benefits, if the same is paid lesser than the amount to which, the petitioner's wife is entitled to receive. Likewise, if the petitioner has any grievance that his wife is entitled to interest for the amount already settled, he can agitate the same as per law, if his wife is entitled to.

6. Learned counsel for the respondents/Transport Corporation says that against certain employees, there are recoveries from them. So, the above payment may be made subject to recoveries, if any, from the employees. The petitioner is also agreeable for the same.

With the above direction, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
