3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the programme is being conducted by the villagers regularly in order to promote harmony during the above said festival period; that a representation was given to the second respondent, but, however, the same was rejected and hence, the petitioner is before this Court with this writ petition. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would further submit that as the aforesaid festival is celebrated in a peaceful manner by the villagers, there will be no untoward incident on account of this celebration.

5. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondent, on instructions, would submit that the representation submitted by the petitioner has been rejected on the mere apprehension that there is likelihood of communal problem during festival.

A perusal of the impugned order of rejection would go to show that the representation of the petitioner has been rejected on mere apprehension that there is a likelihood of problem being created by people belonging to different communities. This apprehension is unfounded, as it is not supported by any document. Therefore, the order dated 01.08.2016 passed by the second respondent is liable to be set aside.
