2.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Special Government Pleader for the respondents. By consent, the writ petition itself is taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission.

3. The petitioner joined duty (having been sponsored by the employment exchange) as a section writer (Junior Assistant) on daily wage basis at Usilampatti. From 1984 to 1995, he served in the respondent department on consolidated pay.

4. The fourth respondent by the proceedings dated 26.06.1995 considering the seniority of the petitioner, appointed him as a Surveyor Draftsman with the time scale of pay under Rule 10(a)(1) of the General Rules for the Tamil Nadu State and Subordinate Services Rules. His service was regularised from the year 1995 and he retired from service in the year 2010, as Draftsman, from the Office of the Assistant Director Survey and Land Records, Madurai.

5. The petitioner's service ought to have been regularised from the date of his initial appointment. But his service was regularised only from the year 1995. He was deprived of his service and monetary benefits in respect of the period from 1984 to 1995. In the meantime, the Government has issued an order in G.O.Ms.No.996, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (placements) Department, dated 22.09.1984, with regard to absorption of Government employees. It was ordered by the Government that service of all temporary personnel in the category of Junior Assistant, typist and stenotypist in the Tamil Nadu Ministerial Service/Tamil Nadu Judicial Ministerial Service recruited through employment exchange and who were in service as on 25.06.1984 be regularised, with effect from 25.06.1984 in the same category and in the same department, in which they were working.

6. Despite the availability of Government Order, the respondents acted in violation of the Government Order and regularised the services of the petitioner with effect from 1995 only. He was entitled for regularisation of his services from the date of his initial appointment as section writer (Junior Assistant) with all consequential benefits.

7. This Court in W.P.(MD)Nos.12477 and 12478 of 2007, dated 25.03.2014, has passed an order regularising the services of the similarly placed employees with effect from 25.06.1984.

8. It is not in dispute that the petitioner was in service as on 25.06.1984. According to G.O.Ms.No.996, dated 22.09.1984, the services of the employees, who were in service in the ministerial service, as on 25.06.1984, are to be regularised with effect from 25.06.1984. Therefore, the petitioner is also entitled for regularisation from 25.06.1984.

9. Accordingly, the respondents are directed to regularise the service of the petitioner from the date of his initial appointment as per G.O.Ms.No.996, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (placements) Department, dated 22.09.1984 and to give notional promotion to the petitioner and to pay the consequential monetary benefits.
