O R D E R

By consent of both parties, the Writ petition itself is taken up for final disposal, in view of the fact that the issue involve in this case is squarely covered by the earlier decision made by this Court in favour of the petitioner.

2.The petitioner is aggrieved against the orders of the 1st respondent, dated 14.12.2015, insofar as imposing a condition that the petitioner should furnish security bond or bank guarantee for a sum of Rs.21,63,049/- on or before 13.01.2016, while granting an order of interim stay by the Appellate Authority.

3.According to the petitioner, in similar matters, this Court permitted furnishing of personal bond instead of security bond or bank guarantee. The above said contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is not disputed by the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents. However, he submitted that the first condition of the stay orders for payment of Rs.7,21,017/- towards the disputed tax is yet realized.

4.It is not in dispute that the petitioner has complied with one of the condition imposed by the Appellate Authority while granting an order of interim stay namely, payment of a sum of Rs.7,21,017/-. To that effect, a proof of payment dated 06.01.2016, which is produced before this Court. Therefore, as on today, the petitioner has complied with the first condition. Insofar as, the second condition is concerned, he is entitled to the benefit of the orders already passed in similar matters by furnishing a personal bond instead of security bond or bank guarantee as directed by the Appellate Authority. Therefore, the order passed by the Appellate Authority impugned in this Writ petition is modified only to the effect that the petitioner shall furnish personal bond for balance amount, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and such personal bond shall be in force till the disposal of appeal. In all other aspects, the order passed by the Appellate Authority impugned in this Writ petition stands. It is made clear that on furnishing of such personal bond, the Appellate Authority is directed to dispose of the appeals on merits and in accordance with law. It is also made clear that on furnishing of such personal bond, the stay granted by the Appellate Authority shall continue till the disposal of the appeal.

5. With the above direction, the Writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
