2.The writ petitioner having served as a Senior Grade

Conductor in the second respondent branch at Jeyankondam was allowed to retire from service with effect from 27.06.2014. But his grievance is that gratuity amount, commutation of pension and other retirement benefits have not been settled. Though the petitioner was allowed to retire from the service of the respondents, till date the respondent Corporation has not settled the retirement benefits. Hence, the petitioner has given representations to settle the entire terminal benefits along with interest for the belated payment. As there was no response to the said representations, the petitioner has come up with the above writ petition.

3. When the matter is taken up for hearing, Mr.D.Sivaraman, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents has submitted that the issue has been once and for all covered by a judgment of the Honourable Division Bench in W.A. (MD).Nos.383 to 457 of 2015 dated 12.06.2015. He has further submitted that the respondents would consider the request of the petitioner in the light of the judgment passed by the Honourable Division Bench. He would further submit that while making computation if any recovery to be made against the petitioner, liberty may be granted to the respondent Corporation to do so and after making such recovery, the final disbursement of retiral benefits would be made.

4. Since the issue has already been settled by this Court in W.A. (MD) Nos.383 to 457 of 2015, dated 12.06.2015, for ready reference, the relevant portion of the abovesaid judgment is given as under:-

"The learned Additional Advocate General submits that he has obtained written instructions vide letter No.7945/E/2015-2 dated 11.06.2015 that the terminal benefits of the appellants would be settled through twelve equal monthly installments, carrying interest of 6% p.a.

2. The said statement is thus taken on record and the respondents will be bound by the same, we have to keep in mind the judicial pronouncement of the Honourable Supreme Court in D.D.TEWARI (D) THR. LRS. Vs. UTTAR HARYANA BIJLI VITRAN NIGAM LTD & ORS {2014 (9) SCALE - 78}, wherein it is held that in case of any delay in making the payment of the installments, the interest payable would become 18% p.a., for the delayed period apart from any other remedy which may be available to the appellants for non-compliance of undertaking given to this Court.
