ORDER:

This contempt case is filed alleging non-compliance of the order dated 28.04.2016 passed in W.P.No.13422 of 2016 wherein the petitioner shall be allowed to run the business in the premises on condition of petitioner paying a sum of Rs.10,000/-. However, for the purpose of redevelopment if the petitioner is required to vacate the premises, the respondent shall give one week notice and the petitioner undertakes to vacate the premises and hand over the same to the 4th respondent – Executive Officer, Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy Vari Devasthanam, Yadagirigutta, Nalgonda, Nalgonda District. In the meanwhile, the representations filed by the petitioner on 11.01.2014 and 20.01.2014 shall be considered and disposed of.

In the counter-affidavit filed by the respondent, it was categorically asserted that for the purpose of renovation and development works near Rajagopuram Veedhi at uphill of Yadagairigutta, the petitioner was allotted Shop No.104 in new Shopping Complex, allotted to the Union. In other words, the order has been complied with.
