.... Respondents

Counsel for the petitioner

: Sri B.Venkateshwarlu

Counsel for the respondents

: G.P. for Home (T.S.)

THE COURT MADE THE FOLLOWING

ORDER: (per Hon'ble Sri Justice C.V.Nagarjuna Reddy)

Seeking release of B.Jaya Krishna, the husband of the petitioner (hereinafter referred to as 'the detenu'), this Writ Petition is filed for issue of habeas corpus.

2. The detenu was detained on the charges of his involvement in the activities of immoral trafficking.

3. Sri B.Venkateshwarlu, learned counsel for the petitioner, submitted that in case of immoral traffic offenders, this Court has been consistently passing orders to the effect that they shall be released subject to the condition of their leaving the place where they have been carrying on their activities and that they shall not re-enter the place till the expiry of the detention period. Learned counsel further submitted that his client has no objection for staying outside H.M.D.A. limits during the rest of the detention period.

4. Learned Government Pleader for Home (T.S.) admitted that such orders, as submitted by learned counsel for the detenu as noted above, are being passed by this Court.

5. In the light of the above submissions, the impugned detention orders are set aside with the direction that the detenu shall be released forthwith from the detention, if he is not required in any other case (s), subject to his giving an undertaking in writing addressed to respondent No. 2 to the effect that on his release, he will forthwith leave H.M.D.A. limits and will not re-enter the said limits till the expiry of the balance detention period and handover the same to the Superintendent, Central Prison, Chanchalguda, Hyderabad, who shall forward the same to respondent No. 2.

6. The Writ Petition is, accordingly, allowed to the extent indicated above.
7. As a sequel to disposal of the Writ Petition, W.P.M.P.No. 35632 of 2016 shall stand closed as infructuous.
