JUDGMENT: (per Hon'ble Sri NRR,J)

It is represented by learned counsel appearing both sides that the parties have amicably settled the dispute amongst themselves outside the Court. In fact, a memo to that effect is also filed into the Court and it is taken on record.

Accordingly, the Miscellaneous Petition and the appeal are disposed of in terms of and in accordance with the settlement worked out by the parties outside the Court as reflected in the Memorandum, which was signed by both parties and the counsel representing both sides. There shall be no order as to costs. Miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending in this appeal shall stand closed.

An application for return of Court fee, that being a formal application be moved before the Registrar (Judicial).
