

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL REVISION CASE No.158 OF 2011

ORDER:

1 This Criminal Revision Case is filed under Sections 397 and 401 of Cr.P.C. challenging the order dated 17.01.2011 in CrI.M.P.No.4853 of 2010 in C.C.No.150 of 2007 on the file of the Court of the I Additional Judicial Magistrate of I Class, Kadapa.

2 Heard Sri Karri Murali Krishna, the learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri M.N.Narasimha Reddy, the learned counsel for the second respondent.

3 A perusal of the record reveals that the second respondent is facing trial in C.C.No.150 of 2007 for the offence punishable under Sections 498-A of IPC and Sections 3 and 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act. During the pendency of the said Case, the prosecution filed CrI.M.P.No.4853 of 2010 under Section 311 Cr.P.C. to recall L.Ws.4 and 6. Upon considering the material available on record, the trial Court dismissed the said petition, by order dated 17.01.2011. Aggrieved by the said order, the de-facto complainant filed the present Criminal Revision Case.

4 The predominant contention of the learned counsel for the second respondent is that the present revision is not maintainable against an interlocutory order passed under Section 311 Cr.P.C.

5 Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that revision lies against the interlocutory orders.

6 In order to appreciate the rival contentions, this Court is placing reliance on the ratio laid down in Sethuraman v.

Rajamanickam¹, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court held at para No.4 as follows:

“4. Secondly, what was not realized was that the order passed by the Trial Court refusing to call the documents and rejecting the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C., were interlocutory orders and as such, the revision against those orders was clearly barred under Section 397(2) Cr.P.C. The Trial Court, in its common order, had clearly mentioned that the cheque was admittedly signed by the respondent/accused and the only defence that was raised, was that his signed cheques were lost and that the appellant/complainant had falsely used one such cheque. The Trial Court also recorded a finding that the documents were not necessary. This order did not, in any manner, decide anything finally. Therefore, both the orders, i.e., one on the application under Section 91 Cr.P.C. for production of documents and other on the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. for recalling the witness, were the orders of interlocutory nature, in which case, under Section 397(2), revision was clearly not maintainable. Under such circumstances, the learned Judge could not have interfered in his revisional jurisdiction. The impugned judgment is clearly incorrect in law and would have to be set aside. It is accordingly set aside. The appeals are allowed.”

7 As per the principle enunciated in the case cited supra, no revision lies against the orders passed under Section 311 Cr.P.C. The facts of the case on hand are almost identical to the facts of the case cited supra.

8 Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in the case cited supra, I am of the considered view that present Criminal Revision Case is not maintainable.

9 Accordingly, the Criminal Revision Case is dismissed. Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Revision Case shall stand closed.
