

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V. RAMASUBRAMANIAN

AND

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE G. SHYAM PRASAD

WRIT PETITION No.22591 OF 2005

ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice V. Ramasubramanian)

The petitioners have come up with the above writ petition challenging an order of the Central Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad, Bench at Hyderabad, (for short, 'the Tribunal') refusing to condone the delay in filing the main Original Application. The main Original Application was filed by the petitioners, seeking posting orders from the date on which notional promotion was given. At the time of filing the writ petition, the first petitioner was aged 50 years and the second petitioner was aged 47 years. The writ petition is of the year 2005. By now, both the petitioners would have reached superannuation. In any case, even if the petitioners succeed, they will only have the delay condoned, forcing them to go back to the Tribunal to prosecute the main Original Application. Therefore, at this distance of time, no relief can be granted to them even by the Tribunal. Hence, the writ petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.

As a sequel to dismissal of the writ petition, miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending in this writ petition, shall stand dismissed as infructuous.
