THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.434 of 2016

ORDER:

This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/A.3 in Crime No.289 of 2015 on the file of the Station House Officer, Husnabad Police Station, Karimnagar District, registered for the offence under Section 420 I.P.C.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor representing the State.

3. A perusal of the record reveals that the petitioner is accused No.3 and the second respondent is the de facto complainant in Crime No.289 of 2015.

4. As per the allegations made in the complaint, A.1 and A.2 collected an amount of Rs.5,00,000/- from the second respondent on the ground that they will provide a job to him in the Government School. The gist of the allegations made in the complaint is that A.1 and A.2 cheated the second respondent.

5. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the second respondent falsely implicated the petitioner with an ulterior motive.

6. Whether the petitioner has committed the alleged offence or not will come to light during the course of investigation only. While exercising the inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the Court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint only. The Court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry as to probability, reliability or genuineness of the allegations made in the complaint at the initial stage of investigation. The material placed before the Court is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

7. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principles enunciated by the Supreme Court in R.P.Kapoor v. State of Punjab^[1] and State of Haryana v. Bhajanlal^[2], I am of the considered view that it is not a fit case to quash the proceedings at the initial stage of the investigation.

8. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the concerned Station House Officer may be directed not to arrest the petitioner till completion of the investigation.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to direct the Station House Officer, Husnabad Police Station, Karimnagar District, not to arrest the petitioner/A.3 in Crime No.289 of 2015 till completion of the investigation.

10. With the above direction, the Criminal Petition is dismissed.

11. Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Petition shall stand closed.
