

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.1709 of 2016

ORDER:

This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/accused No.10 in Crime No.24 of 2016 on the file of Station House Officer, Amberpet Police Station, Hyderabad, registered under Sections 406 and 420 IPC and Section 7 of the Essential Commodities Act.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor representing the State.

A perusal of the record reveals that the petitioner is accused No.10 and the second respondent is the de facto complainant in Crime No.24 of 2016. As per the allegations made in the complaint, the Vigilance Officials intercepted the vehicle bearing No.TS08 UA 2572 while unloading the PDS rice, wheat, sugar and dal into the premises No.2-2-186/1/6 of Turabnagar, Amberpet, Hyderabad. It is further alleged that accused Nos.1 and 4 purchased the PDS rice from the petitioner and other fair price shop dealers. Whether the petitioner has committed the alleged offence or not will come to light during the course of investigation.

It is needless to say that the court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint while exercising inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C., in order to quash the criminal proceedings at the initial stage of investigation. The court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry to ascertain the truthfulness, genuineness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. It is a settled principle of law that the inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate investigation. If the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute the offence much less the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, then this court can quash the proceedings in order to prevent abuse of process of court thereby to secure the ends of justice.

I have carefully perused the material available on record in order to ascertain whether the allegations made in the complaint are patently absurd and inherently improbable thereby to quash the proceedings. The material available on record is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in R.P.KAPOOR v. STATE OF PUNJAB^[1], STATE OF HARYANA v. BHAJAN LAL^[2], V.Y.JOSE V STATE OF GUJARAT^[3] AND TEEJA DEVI v. STATE OF RAJASTHAN^[4], I am of the considered view that this is not a fit case to quash the criminal proceedings at the threshold.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is aged about 60 years, therefore, concerned Station House Officer may be directed not to arrest the petitioner till completion of investigation.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the Station House Officer, Amberpet Police Station, Hyderabad, is hereby directed not to arrest the petitioner/accused No.10 in Crime

No.24 of 2016 till completion of investigation.

With the above direction, the Criminal Petition is dismissed.

Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Petition shall stand closed.
