The case in brief is that the de facto complainant – 4th respondent is the wife of the 1st petitioner, and the other petitioners are the family members of 1st petitioner. The 4th respondent made a complaint before the 3rd respondent alleging that the petitioners are harassing her physically and mentally by demanding additional dowry.

Heard and perused the material available on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners never harassed the 4th respondent demanding additional dowry, and that the 4th petitioner, who is the sister of the 1st petitioner is not residing at Rajahmundry and she is no way concerned with the affairs of the 1st petitioner and the 4th respondent, but the 4th respondent and lodged the present complaint with all false allegations.

Even though this Court is not inclined to interfere with the investigation in the above crime, taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, and since the issue arises out of matrimonial dispute, this Court is of the view that arrest of the petitioners would cause prejudice in case of future settlement between the parties and therefore, the above crime can be investigated into, without arresting the petitioners.

Accordingly, respondents Nos.2 and 3 are directed to complete the investigation and file a final report in the above Crime, in accordance with law, without arresting the petitioners. The petitioners are also directed to appear before the investigating officer concerned, as and when required, and cooperate with the investigation.
