The grievance of the petitioner is that Kumari Anatharam Swetha, who is the de facto complainant, lodged a complaint against the petitioner alleging that the petitioner and the de facto complainant are in love for the last five years and believing her that the petitioner would marry her, the petitioner enjoyed her physically and since the last three months, the petitioner along with A-3 to A-7, threatening the de facto complainant. The grievance of the petitioner is that since the petitioner is a Government employee and he is likely to compromise with the issue and if the petitioner is arrested, his career would be disturbed.
