2. Heard and perused the material available on record.
3. It is alleged in the complaint that due to land disputes, the petitioners with a common intention damaged the shop of the 3rd respondent and when the 3rd respondent asked them, they abused her in the name of her caste, whereas it is the grievance of the petitioners that the 3rd respondent filed the present complaint with false allegations as a counter-blast to the civil suit filed by them against the mother of the 3rd respondent.
