

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.1312 of 2010

ORDER:

_____ This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/accused No.1 in Crime No.102 of 2009 on the file of the Station House Officer, Tiruchanur Police Station, Chittoor District, registered under Section 420 IPC.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor representing the State.

A perusal of the record reveals that the petitioner is accused No.1 and the second respondent is the de facto complainant in Crime No.102 of 2009. As per the allegations made in the complaint, the petitioner posed himself as the owner of a vacant site situated in Survey No.195/1 of Seshachalam Hill View Layout of Tirupathi Urban Mandal, Chittoor District and collected an amount of Rs.21,80,000/-. It is further alleged that the petitioner cheated the second respondent. Whether the petitioner has committed the alleged offence or not will come to light during the course of investigation.

It is needless to say that the court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint while exercising inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C., in order to quash the criminal proceedings at the initial stage of investigation. The court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry to ascertain the truthfulness, genuineness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. It is a settled principle of law that the inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate investigation. If the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute the offence much less the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, then this court can quash the proceedings in order to prevent abuse of process of court thereby to secure the ends of justice.

I have carefully perused the material available on record in order to ascertain whether the allegations made in the complaint are patently absurd and inherently improbable thereby to quash the proceedings. The material available on record is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in R.P.KAPOOR v. STATE OF PUNJAB^[1], STATE OF HARYANA v. BHAJAN LAL^[2], V.Y.JOSE V STATE OF GUJARAT^[3] AND TEEJA DEVI v. STATE OF RAJASTHAN^[4], I am of the considered view that this is not a fit case to quash the criminal proceedings at the threshold.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the concerned Station House Officer may be directed not to arrest the petitioner till completion of investigation.

This Court granted interim stay on 15.03.2010 in CrI.M.P.No.1242 of 2010. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also in view of the orders passed by this Court earlier, the Station House Officer, Tiruchanur Police Station, Chittoor District, is hereby directed not to arrest the petitioner/accused No.1 in Crime No.102 of 2009 till completion of investigation.

With the above direction, the Criminal Petition is dismissed. Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Petition shall stand closed.
