

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.387 of 2016

ORDER:

This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/accused in Crime No.298 of 2015 on the file of Station House Officer, Maheswaram Police Station, Cyberabad, registered for the offence punishable under Sections 341 and 506 IPC.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Public Prosecutor representing the State.

A perusal of the record reveals that the petitioner is the sole accused and the second respondent is the de facto complainant. As per the allegations made in the complaint, on 26.12.2015 at about 10.00 a.m., the petitioner herein obstructed the way into the villa by parking his car on the middle of the road. It is further alleged that the petitioner herein threatened the second respondent with dire consequences. A perusal of the record further reveals that the petitioner herein filed O.S.No.25 of 2015 on the file of the Court of Junior Civil Judge, Maheswaram and obtained interim injunction in his favour in I.A.No.108 of 2015 on 09.10.2015. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that at the instance of the flat owner, the security officer foisted a false case against the petitioner herein. Whether the petitioner has committed the alleged offence or not will come to light during the course of investigation only.

It is needless to say that the court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint while exercising inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C., in order to quash the criminal proceedings at the initial stage of investigation. The court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry to ascertain the truthfulness, genuineness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. It is a settled principle of law that the inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate investigation. If the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute the offence much less the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, then this court can quash the proceedings in order to prevent abuse of process of court thereby to secure the ends of justice.

I have carefully perused the material available on record in order to ascertain whether the allegations made in the complaint are patently absurd and inherently improbable thereby to quash the proceedings. The material available on record is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in R.P.KAPOOR v. STATE OF PUNJAB^[1], STATE OF HARYANA v. BHAJAN LAL^[2], V.Y.JOSE V STATE OF GURAJAT^[3] AND TEEJA DEVI v. STATE OF RAJASTHAN^[4], I am of the considered view that this is not a fit case to quash the criminal proceedings at the threshold.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the concerned Station House Officer may be directed not to arrest the petitioner till completion of investigation.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the Station House Officer, Maheswaram Police Station, Cyberabad, is hereby directed not to arrest the petitioner/accused in Crime No.298 of 2015 till completion of investigation.

With the above direction, the Criminal Petition is dismissed.

Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Petition shall stand closed.
