

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.1688 OF 2016

ORDER:

1 This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C to quash the proceedings against the petitioners/Accused Nos.1 to 6 in Cr.No.23 of 2016 on the file of Station House Officer, Proddatur I Town Police Station registered for the offences punishable under Sections 342 and 506 of IPC and Section 3(1) (x) of the S.C. & S.T (PoA) Act.

2 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor representing the State.

3 The petitioners are accused Nos.1 to 6 and the second respondent is the de-facto complainant in Cr.No.23 of 2016. As per the allegations made in the complaint, on 28.01.2016 the petitioners herein insulted the second respondent in the name of his caste. It is further alleged that the petitioners have wrongfully confined the second respondent and threatened him with dire consequences.

4 The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute any offence, much less the offences alleged to have been committed by the petitioners. Whether the petitioners have committed the alleged offences or not will come to light during the course of investigation only. While disposing of the petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C, the Court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint. The Court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. The very purpose of investigation is to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. The allegations made in the complaint are prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter.

5 Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case on hand and also the principle laid down in R.P.Kapoor v. State of Punjab^[1], State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal^[2], V.Y.Jose v State of Gurajat^[3] and Teeja Devi v State of Rajasthan^[4], I am of the considered view that this is not a fit case to quash the proceedings at this stage.

6 The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the Station House Officer, Proddatur (I) Town Police Station may be directed not to arrest the petitioners / A.1 to A.6 pending investigation in the crime.

7 Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the Station House Officer, Proddatur (I) Town Police Station, YSR Kadapa District is hereby directed not to arrest the petitioners who are accused No.1 to 6 in Cr.No.23 of 2016 till completion of investigation.

8 Accordingly, this criminal petition is dismissed. As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions, pending if any in this Criminal Petition, shall stand closed.
