2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioners/accused and learned Additional Public Prosecutor, representing the State.

3. Specific allegations are levelled against the petitioners in the complaint. The matter requires thorough investigation by the police. The truth or otherwise of the allegations can only be decided during course of investigation. I see no ground to interdict the investigation at this stage and quash the First Information Report.

4. In the facts and circumstances of the case and as requested by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the Criminal Petition is disposed of directing the investigating agency to proceed with the investigation, however, without arresting the petitioners/A2 to A4 in the above crime till the investigation is completed and the charge sheet is filed. The petitioners/A2 to A4 shall cooperate with the investigating agency and shall make themselves available as and when required during course of investigation.

Pending miscellaneous applications, if any, shall stand closed in consequence.
