Rajesh Bindal, J.

The writ petition was disposed of by this Court on 2.12.2008 observing that the steps have already been taken by the Municipal Council, Phagwara, for removing encroachments. It was further observed that Municipal Council, Phagwara, shall ensure that in future there is no encroachment by the unwarranted elements. The boundary wall of the petitioner was demolished finding the same to be on the portion of land owned by the Municipal Council. She has not taken any remedy against the action of the Municipal Council. The demolition drive was taken after following due process of law. The proceedings have attained finality. The present petition has been filed by her alleging that the plot in question is in exclusive ownership of the petitioner, however, the stand of the respondents is that the demolition was carried out after due demarcation of the property in dispute. The land in ownership of the petitioner has not been touched.

Considering the aforesaid facts, there is no merit in the present petition. The same is accordingly dismissed.
