

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCP No.1443 of 2014
Date of Decision: 18.01.2016

Shakuntla DeviPetitioner
Versus
Sh. S.C. Chaudhary and others Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present: Mr.Rajender Chhokar, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr.R.K.S. Brar, Addl. A.G. Haryana.

RAKESH KUMAR JAIN, J. (ORAL)

An innocuous order was passed on 16.12.2013 in the writ petition filed by the petitioner wherein direction was issued to the BDPO to take note of grievance of the petitioner as mentioned in her representation dated 22.10.2013 and to do the needful, as per law.

Learned counsel for the State has submitted that an application under Section 7 of the Punjab Village Common Land (Regulation) Act, 1961 has already been filed after demarcation of the land for the purpose of retrieving possession from the person, who is in unauthorised possession over the Panchayat land.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, however, submits that no demarcation has been conducted, therefore, he wanted to file a replication.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and after examining the record, am of the considered opinion that the proceedings of contempt is between the Court and the contemnor and from the record, it is found that there is no contempt committed by the respondents as the order passed by this Court has already been complied with.

In view thereof, the present petition is hereby dismissed having been rendered infructuous.
