The petitioner, who is appearing in-person, has admitted his mistake in appending incomplete copy of the order dated 22.1.2013 and has submitted that it was due to oversight/inadvertence on his part.

Be that as it may, since the said document has been signed by the petitioner as a true copy, therefore, the said document can not be allowed to be retained on record.

Faced with this difficulty, the petitioner prays for withdrawal of this petition in order to file it again with better particulars much less with proper documents.
