IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA, CHANDIGARH

COCP No. 2785 of 2013(O&M)
Date of decision : August 16, 2016

Mohan Singh and others

..... Petitioners

Versus

Lakhwinder Kaur and others

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present:- Mr. O. P. Hoshiarpuri, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. S. C. Chhabra, Advocate for the respondents.

Rakesh Kumar Jain, J (oral).

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have filed a suit for specific performance of the agreement to sell which was executed after the compromise was entered into between the parties, as a result thereof, the sale of land in question was confirmed in favour of Gurbachan Singh.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that they would abide by the decision of the Civil court and in case, they would loose in the civil suit, they would comply with the judgment and decree passed therein and would not take the plea of remedy of appeal.

He has further submitted that necessary direction may be issued to the civil court where the suit is at the advanced stage to decide the same within the specified time.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has raised no objection and has submitted that necessary direction be issued to the civil court and assures the court that the petitioners would co-operate with the trial of the suit.

In view of the aforesaid, the present Contempt Petition is disposed of with a direction to the civil court to decide the suit filed by the petitioners in which they have sought a decree for specific performance of the agreement to sell, as early as possible, preferably within a period of six months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

It is needless to mention that the parties to the lis shall co-operate with the progress of the suit and the civil court shall also grant short adjournments.
