This petition is filed for the alleged disobedience of the order dated 02.5.2014 in which statement was made by the respondent that interest, if due, will be paid to the petitioner on the admissible rate for which calculation shall be made.

After notice, the respondent has filed the reply in which following averments have been made in para 7:-

“That as per judgment and decree dated 01.12.2009 the petitioner is entitled for interest @ 8% per annum on the arrear of pay only. The Ld.Civil Judge (Sr.Division Narnaul) vide judgment and decree dated 01.12.2009 held that plaintiffs shall be entitled to interest @ 8% per annum of the arrears of pay and same was clarified the order dated 02.05.2014 (Annexure P-1). Accordingly plaintiff was paid ₹1210/- as interest @ 8% on amount of ₹4778/- already paid to the petitioners as arrear of pay on 26.02.2016. The petitioner is not entitled for interest on any other amount paid by the department such as revised gratuity etc, because no court has granted any interest on such amount. The interest @ 8% was granted by the civil court on arrear of pay only, which has already stood paid to the petitioner”.

There is no counter affidavit filed by the petitioner. Thus, I do not find any reason to proceed further with this petition.
