Madan Lal and others

.. Petitioners

versus

Mr. Anurag Aggarwal and others

.. Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Bindal

Present: Mr. Birinder Singh Khehar, Advocate, for the petitioners.
Mr. Amit Arora, Advocate, for the respondents.

Rajesh Bindal, J.

Affidavit of Ajit Bala Ji Joshi, Deputy Commissioner-cum-Estate Officer, Chandigarh Administration, U. T. Chandigarh, dated 29.2.2016, filed in Court, is taken on record.

The petitioners approached this Court alleging violation of the order passed by this Court on 22.12.2014, in terms of which the cases of the petitioners were to be considered for allotment of tenements, as a part of the rehabilitation process of the slum dwellers.

The stand of the respondents is that the cases of the petitioners were considered as per the policy. Except, petitioner no. 5, in the present contempt petition, who was found to be eligible for allotment, the other petitioners were not found eligible and their cases were rejected. The orders have been communicated to the petitioners.

Considering the fact that the order passed by this Court has been complied with, the present petition is disposed of as such, however, the petitioners are granted liberty to avail of their appropriate remedy against the order passed by the authority rejecting their claim.

Ordered accordingly.
