AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (ORAL)

Additional affidavit of Sh. Ravinder Singh, Managing Director, Pepsu Road Transport Corporation, Patiala, has been filed in COCP No.
1684 of 2014 in Court today and in para-5 thereof, it has been stated as

revision and dearness allowance etc. have been released to the petitioners and thus all the payments towards retiral benefits have been released to the petitioners as per the record maintained by the office of the respondent.”

In view of the above, these contempt petitions have been rendered infructuous and are disposed of as such.

In case the petitioners have any grievance with regard to the payments, which they were entitled to and have not been released including interest, they may represent to the Managing Director, Pepsu Road Transport Corporation, Patiala, within a period of three weeks from today. If such a representation is made, the same shall be considered and decided by passing a speaking order within a further period of six weeks. In case the claim of the petitioner(s) is considered and decided in his/their favour, the consequential benefits be released to him/them within a further period of eight weeks.

Rule issued to the respondent(s) stands discharged.
