..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. Nakul Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. R.S. Athwal, Advocate for the respondent.

1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This revision has been filed against the order dated 11.12.2015 dismissing application filed by the petitioner for amendment of the written statement.

The first amendment which was sought that the property had been taken on rent by the original tenant and after his death all his legal heirs have become tenant in common and should have been impleaded as a party.

Learned counsel for the respondent states that he would have no objection to implead all the legal representatives. He further undertakes to file amended memo of parties within two days but argues that the instant application has been filed after two years of filing of the ejectment petition in a case where a serving army officer need a house for his own occupation.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the other legal representatives of the deceased-tenant would definitely file their written statement on the next date of hearing. Further both the learned counsel undertakes to lead their entire evidence within three effective opportunities and the only assistance they would seek from the Rent Controller is dasti summons. Allowed as prayed for.

As regards the other amendments, the learned counsel for the petitioner has fairly stated to not press the same.

In the entirety of circumstances, the Rent Controller is requested to conclude the trial expeditiously and in any case within a period of 6 months from the next date of hearing.

In the circumstances, the petition stands disposed of in the above terms.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Civil Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.

A copy of this order be given to the learned counsel for the parties under the signatures of the Bench Secretary.
