AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This revision has been filed against the concurrent orders of the Courts below allowing ejectment of the petitioner-tenant from the demised premises.

After arguing for some time in detail, learned counsel for the petitioner states that in the alternative he had sought instructions and obtained instructions that he will not press this revision on merits and will vacate the premises voluntarily on or before 30.11.2016 without forcing the respondents-landlords to file an execution petition and will continue to pay the monthly contractual rent in advance by the 7th of every month, and pay the other admissible charges regularly. He further undertakes to pay upto date arrears of rent, if any, within a period of one month from today.

Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions, has also accepted this offer on the condition that the petitioner will file an undertaking to the above effect before the Executing Court within one month, with the condition that in the event of any default, this petition would be deemed to be dismissed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has accepted this condition.

Resultantly, the revision petition stands disposed of in the above terms.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
