

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR No. 1934 of 2015(O&M)
Date of decision: 20.01.2016

Rohini Madhok and others

... Petitioners

versus

Shashi Madhok and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. KANNAN

Present: Mr. Atul Gaur, Advocate
Mr. Sumeet Goel, Advocate for the petitioners.

K.Kannan, J. (ORAL)

An affidavit has been filed by way of chief-examination that gift had been made in favour of the daughter-in-law. He wanted to correct the same by reference to the gift deed itself which provided that the gift was first in favour of his wife and after her death the property was bequeathed to the daughter-in-law. This I reckon to be purely clerical and verifiable by the recitals in the gift deed itself. The correction ought to have been permitted.

The order already passed is set aside and the corrected affidavit shall form the basis for the chief-examination.

Counsel states that this Court had already allowed the amended affidavit to be filed and further process in cross-examination to be continued. The cross-examination also appears to have been conducted on the affidavit. The revision petition is allowed treating the amended affidavit as the evidence in itself and the evidence already let in on the basis of amended affidavit will stand.
