Versus

Harbans Devi

..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. R.K. Arya, Advocate for the petitioner.

1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This revision has been filed against the concurrent orders of the Courts below allowing ejectment of the petitioner-tenant from the demised premises.

After arguing for some time, on instructions from his client the learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that the petitioner will not press this petition on merits but since the petitioner is running a business in the premises in dispute she is ready to settle this dispute. Therefore, a period of two years should be granted to her to vacate the premises voluntarily without forcing the respondent-landlord to press the execution petition.

Notice of motion.

Mr. Vipin Mahajan, Advocate has entered appearance on behalf of the caveator-respondent-landlord. He states that in principle he has instructions to accept the reasonable time but the period of two years is too excessive since the landlord requires the premises for her own use and has stated that the petitioner should vacate the premises within 1½ years.

Ultimately what has been settled between the parties is that the petitioner will pay the entire arrears of rent till date to the respondent-landlord within one month and the respondent-landlord will permit her to retain the premises in dispute till 31.12.2017. Further the petitioner will continue to pay rent in advance by the 7th of every month and also pays the other charges regularly. Further it has been agreed that the petitioner would also file an undertaking before the Rent Controller/Executing Court within 15 days that she would vacate the premises in dispute voluntarily on or before 31.12.2017 without forcing the landlord to press the execution application and continue to pay rent in advance by the 7th of every month and also pay other charges regularly. Further that she will pay the entire arrears of rent within one month from today.

At the request of learned counsel for the respondent-landlord, it is stipulated that in default of any of the above conditions this petition would be deemed to be dismissed.

Petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
