Civil Revision No.3677 of 2004

Counsel for the petitioner states that vacant possession of the demised premises has been handed over to the respondent-landlord in the light of the compromise, which has been entered into and, therefore, the petitioner does not want to pursue the present revision petition.

Counsel for the respondent submits that although he has no intimation with regard to the actual handing over of the possession of the demised premises but talks of compromise were in progress earlier.

In the light of the statement made by counsel for the petitioner, as recorded above to the effect that demises premises have been vacated and vacant possession handed over to the respondent, the present revision petition is disposed of as withdrawn, as prayed for.
