1. The counsel for the petitioner states that she will be satisfied if the petitioner is allowed to participate in the proceedings along with the other defendant who has already entered a contest. The order already passed is set aside, dispensing with notice having regard to the limited contention raised and the petitioner will have the benefit of participation in the proceedings with the defendant who was contesting the suit.

2. The revision petition is disposed of with the above observation. The defendant will also be competent to adopt the written statement already filed if he so chooses to declare.
