versus

Bharti

.... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. KANNAN

Present: Mr. Surinder Dagar, Advocate, for the petitioner.

K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

1. The counsel points out that the case of maintenance has been decided already by the court after evidence under Section 125 Cr.P.C. allowing for ₹5,000/- to the wife and ₹3,000/- to the child. Interim maintenance granted already shall stay restricted to the amount as determined by the Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Hodal on 14.01.2016. Since the decision under Section 125 Cr.P.C. had been taken after a full-fledged trial, I direct the maintenance awarded under Section 125 Cr.P.C. proceedings shall itself be taken as also maintenance under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act.

2. The order already passed stands modified and the revision petition is disposed of.
