CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Mr. Vinod K. Kaushal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

The instant revision petition has been filed for setting aside the order dated 30.05.2016 passed by learned Additional District Judge, Amritsar, whereby respondent has been granted ₹ 8,000/- per month as interim maintenance and ₹ 10,000/- as litigation expenses.

Brief facts of the case are that the respondent filed an application under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for grant of interim maintenance and litigation expenses. Vide order dated 30.05.2016, learned Additional District Judge, Amritsar, granted ₹ 8,000/- per month as interim maintenance and ₹ 10,000/- as litigation expenses to the respondent. Hence, this revision petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner vehemently contended that interim maintenance granted by the learned Court below is on the higher side. Moreover, respondent is not entitled for any maintenance as she herself deserted the petitioner.

I have considered the contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioner.

There is no force in the contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioner. There is sufficient evidence on record to show that the petitioner is running Mangat Computer Center and is doing regular business. Otherwise also it is the duty of a husband to maintain his wife so that she is not left in the lap of vagrancy and destitution. ₹ 8,000/- per month granted to the respondent as interim maintenance cannot in any terms be said to be on the higher side.

I do not find any illegality or perversity in the impugned order.

Dismissed in limine.
