

M/S PUNJAB CRUCIBLE HOUSE
VS
NARINDER GUPTA & ANR

Present : Petitioner No.2 in person.

Mr. Ravi Kakkar, Advocate for Mr. Jagdish Manchanda, Advocate for respondents.

***

Ajay Tewari,J.(Oral)

Photocopy of driving licence of petitioner No.2-Ramesh Chand has been taken on record as proof of his identity. He states that the possession has been handed over to the respondents and consequently the petition be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

Learned counsel for the respondents states that he has received the instructions from his clients that the possession has been handed over to them.

In the circumstances the petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous subject to all just exceptions.

April 12, 2016
sunita/pooja sharma-I

(AJAY TEWARI)
JUDGE