K.Kannan, J. (ORAL)

Two revisions were filed against the same order passed by the Executing Court. In the revision petition filed by the decree holder this Court has passed the order disposing of the revision and allowing for review to be filed before the Executing Court. The judgment debtor is in revision from the same order which was earlier the subject of challenge in CR No. 4819 of 2014. This revision would not require any independent consideration and the matter is sent back to the Executing Court where the parties were being given the liberty to file their respective memo of calculations and the Court will take an appropriate adjudication in the light of the directions already given by this Court in CR No. 2355 of 2014 decided on 06.11.2012.

The civil revision petition is disposed of with the above observations.
