

RELIANCE GENERAL INSURANCE CO LTD VS SUNITA DEVI & ORS

Present: Mr. Sanjeev Kodan, Advocate for the appellant

Counsel for the appellant inter alia contends that the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Rohtak (in short “the Tribunal”) has assessed income of the deceased at Rs. 25,000/- per month on the basis of deposition of Vijay Kumar PW1 in regard to the deceased having been given appointment by M/s Mahashiv Promoters Private Limited at a salary of Rs. 25000/- per month and was to join his duties from 10.7.2015, though the deceased admittedly died on account of receipt of injuries in the accident that took place on the intervening night of 2/3-7.2015. Another submission made by counsel is that the Tribunal has not even considered liability of the deceased to pay income tax out of the alleged salary.

Notice of motion to the claimants only, returnable for 16.1.2017.

Counsel for the appellant states that the entire amount of compensation shall be deposited with the Tribunal within a period of four weeks.

In case necessary deposit is made, disbursement of compensation beyond 80% shall remain stayed. The remaining amount shall be deposited in a fixed deposit payable to the successful party.
