On April 27, 2016, counsel for the petitioner stated that he will write a registered letter to the petitioner and in case, he fails to get any response, he will pray that this petition be dismissed. Counsel for the petitioner has not put in appearance in spite of telephonic calls.

In this view of the matter, this writ petition is dismissed keeping in view the statement of the learned counsel on the previous date. Liberty is, however, granted to the petitioner to get it revived in case of need.

A copy of this order be sent to the learned counsel for the petitioner for his information.
