CM-9424-CII-2016

Learned counsel for applicant-petitioner submits that as per order passed by the learned Executing Court, Fatehabad, the execution has stood satisfied and the vehicle has been ordered to be released to the judgment debtor. The auction of the vehicle has also been set aside.

In view of this, the revision petition filed by the petitioner has become infructuous and the same be allowed to be withdrawn.

In view of the submissions of learned counsel for petitioner, Civil Revision No. 7851 of 2015, listed for 2.9.2016 is preponed for today.

CR-7851 of 2015

As the auction of the vehicle in favour of petitioner has been set aside by the Executing Court, the revision petition is dismissed as infructuous. The petitioner shall be at liberty to seek refund of the amount already deposited by him before the Executing Court.
